

Script title: The 9th Floor is empty.

Genre: Horror.

Author: Pablo Scieपुरa a.k.a. Paul LeRocq.

Logline:

What would happen if not only the spirit of a dead mom comes back to follow each of our sighs, but also her dead possessed child 's tormented soul holds her hand in every step?

Synopsis:

Three men die under strange circumstances. A dark theatre, an almost empty gym during the night and a solitary building 's hall are just the beginning of the worst murders seen by Detectives Glenn Perry and Vera Linz.

The investigation that follows the dreadful scenes witnessed connects the three dead doctors with a fire incident from where they could escape some years ago, celebrated in the 9th floor of a now empty building.

As the case gets darker, Vera and Glenn will realize they 're not alone as long as the obscure forces and strange apparitions increase their presence, breathing behind their backs.
